

HILLSIDE FURNACE AND MINE.

Last Tuesday we paid a visit to the Hillside M. & M. Company's furnace at Bristol and to the mine. At Bristol we found the furnace in full blast, running splendidly, and keeping three shifts of workmen busy attending to it. Hillside ore is found to be just the kind to run through nicely; the only addition that is requisite to make it work is quartz. Each shift of workmen turn out about 60 bars, making 180 bars in a twenty-four hours' run. These bars weigh over 75 pounds each and the average assay of the bullion is $455 per ton. Up to the time we were there the furnace had been running successfully eight days, averaging from $2,500 to $3,000 per day. Mr. McGee, Manager, stated to us that if he could keep the furnace running for five or six days longer that the company would be enabled to pay for everything, including the money advanced by him to purchase the National mine and furnace. Fast freight teams had arrived there Sunday night with goods for Mills & Co. and had loaded up with 30,000 pounds of bullion from the furnace; several Mormon teams, destined for York, Utah, had conveyed away 20,000 pounds, making 25 tons shipped. The day we were there charcoal was coming in from all directions and it looked as if there would be enough to keep the furnace running several days. The town of Bristol is now composed of the furnace, blacksmith-shop, store, boarding-house, two saloons, butcher-shop and several residences. Four springs supply the place with water of good quality, and plenty of it. At the furnace is a pump connected with the tanks and springs by which the entire furnace could be flooded in case of fire. Having seen all that was to be seen at Bristol, in company with Eugene Blair, Superintendent, we visited the Hillside mine, about five miles up the canyon. A good wagon road has been constructed to the mine by the company at a cost of $1,000; an immense amount of work for such a sum. On descending into the mine, we found at the depth of 50 feet, the ledge appears to separate and inclines have been sunk in the two directions; one incline is almost vertical, and running to a depth of 80 feet, while the other runs at an angle of 45 degrees to a depth of 125 feet from the surface. At a depth of 80 feet on this incline a drift has been run west a distance of 25 feet, and from six to nine feet wide, all in ore—top, bottom and sides. The work of raising on this body of ore and knocking it down has been commenced and the drift is being continued westward to see how far it extends. No foot-hanging wall has yet been found, and whether this is an immense chamber of ore, and how long it will hold, cannot yet be told. The ore holds to a depth of 125 feet, with every indication of it being permanent. Three hundred tons of ore are on the dump at the mine. It is being hauled to the furnace as rapidly as teams can do it, where there are over 200 tons on hand. Ore has been brought from Highland to Bristol and sold to the company, they paying 80 per cent. of the assay value, less the price of working. The prospects of the company look very bright for the future.

AT THE MAZEPPA.—The miners who took possession of the Mazeppa mine last week commenced work on the first level after taking possession, and since then have been taking out a considerable quantity of good ore. Through the kindness of Captain Lubbock, who furnishes them with water free of charge, they were enabled to run the engine, whereby their labors were considerably lightened. They are working on the back ledge of the first level—a ledge said to be separate and distinct from the Mazeppa ledge—which was discovered over a month ago and located in the name of E. R. Clute; but since the miners have taken to work some of them, knowing that Mr. Clute could not legally hold it in his own name on account of his being the Superintendent of the Alps company, have jumped or relocated this ledge and claim it as their own. What will be done in reference to it we are unable to say; law will probably decide the question.

A WEDDING.—The residence of Mr. & Mrs. G. H. Fish, was visited on the evening of the Fourth by a number of friends and acquaintances to witness the marriage of S. F. Willett to Miss Lola Vaillancourt. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. H. Kline. Miss Laura Gill officiated as bridesmaid and Mr. H. S. Crocker as groomsmen. After the ceremony and the newly wedded couple had received the congratulations of their friends all present were invited to partake of an elegant collation prepared by Mrs. Fish. We wish the couple a happy married life.

"BLACK WARRIOR."—The miners who relocated the "back ledge" of the Mazeppa have called it the "Black Warrior," in honor of the old colored lady, the chief of the "female fighters," who so gallantly led her little army to victory in the defense of their water.

DISTANCED.—Mollie McCarthy, the California mare, was distanced in the first heat at the race in Louisville, Ky., which came off on the Fourth.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

The Day stockholders in Pioche held a meeting at the Court-house Wednesday evening, according to the notice published last week. Mr. H. H. Garrison was chosen President. He stated that he had called the meeting for the purpose of ascertaining the sentiments of resident stockholders of Pioche and its vicinity in regard to the present management of the affairs of the Day Company, and if possible to obtain a sufficient number of proxies to remove the present Board of Trustees. After the transaction of some business a committee of three was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting with reference to the management of the Day S. M. Co. The following are the resolutions reported by the committee and adopted by the meeting and Chairman:

Whereas, It appears that certain parties in San Francisco, California, under the pretence of aiding and assisting the Day Silver Mining Company, have commenced and are prosecuting an action against the President, Directors and officers of said company seeking to enjoin them from collecting the properly levied and necessary assessment upon the stock of said company; and, whereas it appears to us that said proceedings were not instituted and are not being prosecuted for the benefit of the stockholders of said company, but for some ulterior design; and, whereas such are working great hardship to the bona fide stockholders of said company, and the employees and other creditors of said company; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, stockholders of the Day S. M. Co., condemn said action and proceedings and the attempt thereby to injure the said company and the stockholders thereof and demand that the same be discontinued.

Resolved, That as we have paid the amount of the assessment upon our stock into the hands of our brokers, we demand that they pay the same to the proper officers of the company that they may proceed with its legitimate business.

Resolved, That we have full faith in the management, and the mine and property of said company, and we believe that when the embarrassments arising from said proceedings in San Francisco are removed it will soon be a dividend paying corporation.

It was moved and seconded that a copy of these resolutions be sent to H. A. Fox, Chairman of the dissatisfied stockholders meetings; to Jasper McDonald, President of the company, and to the Pioche Record and San Francisco Chronicle, after which the meeting adjourned.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.—Last Tuesday the Deputy Sheriff served John M. Whitehill, Assayer, and John Collier, Superintendent of the Alps mill, with papers ordering them to appear before the District Court Wednesday and show if they had any property of the Alps company. Those proceedings were commenced by the State Bank. The facts of Mr. Whitehill's case are this: That Whitehill had some bullion, which is called skimmings—left in pots, etc.—half of which falls to the assayer as his perquisite, the other half belonging to the mill, which was sold to Mr. Whitehill over a month since and his account charged with it. This was mostly the property of Mr. Whitehill before the commencement of the Alps troubles. The Judge decided that under the written agreement held by Whitehill he was entitled to the bullion sold by him. Mr. Collier gave evidence to the effect that E. R. Clute, as Superintendent of the Alps company, had sold him on the 10th of June 62 flasks of quicksilver, valued at $2,300; it being a partial payment on a debt of $4,000 due him. A bill of sale of the quicksilver was shown, but the sale was not recorded on the books of the company and the book-keeper testified that he knew nothing about it. The Court ruled that the Superintendent had no right to dispose of the property of the company without the consent of the Trustees and ordered Collier to turn the quicksilver over into the possession of the Sheriff, who will hold it until the sale is proved legal. We very much regret that we did not take the testimony down exactly as given and let the public form their own opinion. It is generally believed here that the Alps company will be unable to go through bankruptcy on account of fraud.

DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court met on Monday, July 1st, and transacted the following business: The civil calendar was called and disposed of, viz: Clute vs. Wells, Fargo & Co.; passed for term by consent. Heinzelman vs. Gillen; to be tried by Court; passed for the term by consent. Clay vs. Montgomery; case remanded to Clerk's office. Steele vs. Snodgrass; to be tried by Court; set for trial July 5th. Barter vs. McKee; to be tried by jury; D. Cohn vs. Jacobs & Sultan; passed to next setting of calendar by consent. A Aguayo, Administrator, continued to Saturday, July 6th. Court adjourned to Friday, July 5th.

I. O. O. F. INSTALLATION.—The semi-annual installation of the following officers of I. O. O. F. took place at their hall in Pioche Tuesday evening: N. G. A. H. Emanuel; V. G., John Pasco; Secretary, S. D. Smith; Treasurer, D. A. Fulk; Warden, Wm. Taylor; Conductor, Jos. Griffin; Inside Guardian, Moses Arnold; Outside Guardian, W. Bell; R. S. N. G., D. Cohn; L. S. N. G., T. Dunston; R. S. V. G., John Jane; L. S. V. G., J. G. Ward.

PEOPLE'S MARKET.—Loomis & Adelman of the People's Market are constantly receiving a large supply of fresh meats; beef, mutton and veal, the best of the kind for family use.

The bill of the Floral Springs Water Company for repairs on water-pipe was presented, and, on motion, was duly rejected. Board adjourned.

STABBING AFFRAY.—Wm. Jose, living at the lower end of Pioche street, was stabbed on the afternoon of the Fourth by James Stevens, his son-in-law. This is the Jose's side of the story, and we give it for what it is worth: Stevens went to Jose's house in the afternoon with Wm. Gray. Stevens asked the old man to take a drink, and while he was in the act of doing so stabbed him in the shoulder. Jose then grappled with him, and while struggling was stabbed in the side. Jose's wife then kicked the knife out of Stevens' hand and he was then ejected from the house. Officers searched for Stevens during afternoon and evening, as soon as the affair was known, but could not find him. One stab in the old man's left side, just under the heart, and the other in the left shoulder. Dr. Philson attended the wounded man, and says although he is badly cut, no bad symptoms are developed.

BULLION GARNISHED.—On Monday last, at one o'clock, Sheriff McKee garnished two bars of bullion placed in Wells, Fargo & Co.'s charge for transportation by E. R. Clute. Mr. Clute claimed these bars as being the product of chlorides ore; the Sheriff claimed them as being the product of amalgam under attachment at the mill, and as such he was responsible for them in case the Alps company went into the bankrupt court. We know nothing as to the merits of the case, except as to the fact of the garnishment.

EXCELLENT MUSIC.—The several persons composing the musical band of Pioche have lately been discoursing some excellent music, gratis, for the benefit of the citizens. On Saturday evening they assembled on the balcony of the Grambs lodging-house and kept up playing music and singing until after 10 o'clock, much to the delight of a large crowd of citizens assembled to hear them.

A DONATION.—Brother Newman, of the Panaca Saloon, did not forget the printers on the Fourth, as was evidenced to us by the arrival of a large lot of Ph. Best's Milwaukee Beer and a box of cigars. It would have relieved Mrs. Jenks considerably to have had a glass of that beer while she was undergoing the cross-examination of Ben Butler.

THE FOURTH.—The Fourth of July was passed very quietly in Pioche. The most of our citizens went picnicking along the line of the railroad and over to Panaca, where a dance was given by Mrs. Wedge, the train returning at a late hour that night.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.—We publish to-day the Auditor and Treasurer's Report for the quarter ending June 30th, which shows a cash balance on hand of $4,721.84, apportioned to the different funds. Of this amount $175 belongs to the State Fund.

LEACHING.—A tank is being constructed at Bullionville for the purpose of trying the leaching process on tailings. This process has been a great success at Silver Reef, and it is thought that it will work well on the tailings at Bullionville.

RAYMOND & ELY.—No change in the work below. All the compressor machinery has arrived and is being put together. The bed-plate, stanchions, etc., have been put in place and the work is progressing rapidly.

CHRISTY BULLION.—The Christy Mill & Mining Company shipped from Silver Reef for the month of June bullion valued at $26,930.13. They shipped July 31 one bar worth $1,053.21.

POSTPONEMENT.—The day of the delinquency of the Alps stock has been postponed until the 10th of July, 1878, and the day of sale until Tuesday, Aug. 6th, 1878.

W. B. COVINGTON, formerly a compositor in this office, we learn has been in the asylum for insane persons at Napa, California, for over a year.

WEDNESDAY night some unknown person set fire to the vacant China wash-house out on Lacour street. It was discovered by the driver of the Hamilton stage, who gave the alarm, and Constable Turner extinguished the flames.

T. C. POUJADE during the past week received a large assortment of family groceries direct from the Eastern markets. Those wanting first quality of flour, coffee, sugar, etc., should examine his stock.

PIOCHE BULLION.—$13,188.71 in bullion was shipped during the week, according to reports of Superintendents.

The bed-plate belonging to the Raymond & Ely air compressor arrived last Saturday evening.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon one of those terrible mining accidents, against which the greatest care cannot guard, occurred in the Caledonia mine. At that time C. F. Germann, one of the shift bosses of the mine, was thrown from the cage and fell 1450 feet to the bottom of the shaft.

The manner of the accident cannot be better told than in the language of W. R. McKee, who was on the cage with the deceased at the time of its occurrence. Mr. McKee says: "We had been down to the 700 level to change a cask of the pump. When the work was completed we were lowered to the 1000 level, where the man who had been assisting us was left off to his work. We then started for the surface. We had on the stage with us our tools, and Mr. Germann had a piece of plank about six feet in length which he was taking to the surface. He held one arm around it and I held to the crossbar. When within about 150 feet of the top the cage gave a violent lurch, throwing me up into the bonnet and injuring my side and hip severely. I came down on the cage and as soon as I looked around I saw that Germann was missing. He fell to the bottom of the shaft, 1450 feet, and the plank fell with him." Mr. McKee gives it as his opinion that Mr. Germann must have allowed the end of the plank to swing out till it struck the timbering of the shaft, thus causing the accident. When the reporter reached the Caledonia hoisting works a portion of the remains of the deceased had been gathered in a blanket and brought to the surface and search was being made for other portions of the body, which were scattered up and down the shaft. There was scarcely a semblance of humanity left in the quivering mass which had been brought to the surface. It was but a shapeless heap of flesh and bones. The deceased was a native of Del-field, Waukesha county, Wisconsin, and age 31 years. He was an old resident here and a good, careful miner. He was married a year ago last April and lived on P-taluma street, near the cemeteries. He leaves many friends and a wife and one small child to mourn his loss.—[G. H. News, 1st.

Deaths from strong emotion have been numerous within a few days. Louis Wassman was so affected by the imprisonment of a young companion in Moline, Ill., for theft, that he died of heart disease. Henry S. Moss, a Louisville merchant, declined rapidly in health after the exposure of his forgeries, and died a maniac. Henry Altsch died of grief in East Delaware, Ohio, on learning of his daughter's elopement. Mrs. Allingham dropped dead from heart disease at the sight of her sons fighting. Bryant Foley was so scared in Watertown, N. Y., by a belief that carbolic acid used in washing a wound had poisoned his system, that he died within three hours. A Harvard student named Waters studied nineteen hours without cessation, went crazy from excitement, and died in a madhouse. May Watterson, of Jasper, Ohio, fell dead when told of her lover's death.—[New York Sun.

General Brisbane, commanding Second United States Cavalry, at Fort Ellis, Montana, writes an official letter, protesting against the vandalism of strangers, who, while visiting the National Park, wantonly slay the elk who abound there, and destroyed the magnificent geysers formations which are age-old. He urges that a guard be placed at each of the three entrances of the Park, to enforce decency and to prevent further depredations.

One evening our old friend, the Rev. Dr. —, took tea with us. Out of politeness, I asked him to give thanks, forgetting, for the moment, the presence of my granddaughter and the fact that the Doctor was long-winded. The child startled us all, right in the middle of the grace, by exclaiming, in a loud voice: "Oh! Amen! Hand me the biscuit!"—[Independent.

THE WANDERING JEW FROM A HEBREW POINT OF VIEW.

The legend of the Jew, says a Jewish paper, ever wandering and never dying, even from the crucifixion of Jesus to the present day, is spread over many European countries. The accounts, however, as in all fables, do not agree. One version is this: When Jesus was led to death, oppressed by the weight of the cross, he wished to rest himself near the gate of the house of Ahasuerus. This man, however, sallied forth and thrust him away. Jesus turned toward him, saying:

"I shall rest, but thou shalt move on till I return."

And from that time he has had no rest, and is obliged incessantly to wander about. Another version is that given by Matthew, of Paris, a monk of the thirteenth century: When Jesus was led from the tribunal of Pilate, to death, the doorkeeper, named Carthamus, pushed him from behind with his foot, saying:

"Walk on, Jesus, quickly; why dost thou tarry?"

Jesus looked at him gravely, and said:

"I walk on, but thou shalt tarry till I come."

And this man, still alive, wanders from place to place in constant dread of the wrath to come. A third legend adds that this wandering Jew falls sick every hundred years, but recovers and renews his strength; hence it is that, after so many centuries, he does not look much older than a septuagenarian. Thus much for the legends. Not one of the ancient authors alludes to this wanderer. The first who reports such a thing is a monk of the thirteenth century, when, as is known, the world was full of pious frauds. However, the story has spread far and wide, so that it has become a proverb. "He runs about like a Wandering Jew."
